This 4.5' x 4.5' painting is a striking abstract landscape with a dynamic blend of warm and cool tones. The piece features deep reds, oranges, and earthy browns cascading downward, contrasted by cool blues and purples that create a sense of movement and depth. A bold horizontal line near the top suggests a horizon, with distant mountains and a dramatic sky adding to the scene's intrigue. The expressive brushwork and layered textures give the painting an emotional, almost ethereal quality—making it a captivating statement piece for any space.
