

One of a Kind Cross! Very Unique

Starting Bid $150.00

Retail Value $275.00

Donated by Abe Feder

This unique, one of a kind was designed by William T Templeton. The last cross item he produced was in 2017.

William T. Templeton is an artist known for his horse, flower, and dog art, among other subjects. His designs are available as canvas prints, framed prints, posters, greeting cards, and apparel on various platforms. Born in Lake Forest, Illinois, Templeton spent his early life on the North Shore of Chicago. He has been creating art since childhood and was formally trained at New Trier East High School in Winnetka, Illinois, and later graduated from the University of Arizona with a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree. His work is characterized by bright, bold colors and vibrant compositions, often featuring positive subliminal messages like hearts, angels, and crosses.