Porto Portugal:

Porto is a vibrant and colorful city with a magnetic atmosphere and rich in tradition. Situated around the mouth of the river Douro, it is one of the most eclectic travel destinations in Europe. Full of charm, history, and architecture there is something for everyone in Porto. Foodies will be in their element - from the Mercado do Bolhão food market to the many port wine lodges. The endless wine vineyards of the nearby Douro Valley are complemented by beautiful scenic landscapes and quaint villages. This renowned wine region, in addition to producing port wine, has exceptional red and white wines.

The Residence:

Located near the city center of downtown Porto this bright property features two bedrooms and two bathrooms. This residence is centrally located for an easy stroll downtown to one of the many local wine bars or explore what culinary masterpieces Porto has to offer. A must-hit for a foodie is The Yeatman which is a two-Michelin Star-rated restaurant in the area.
